

Whelan's

Est 1894

Everything for me started here, and I hope to always play here if you'll have me!
Ed Sheeran - Whelans January 2015

DUBLIN'S ORIGINAL LIVE MUSIC VENUE LIVE MUSIC 7 NIGHTS A WEEK

Whelan's is not only one of the most important live music venues of the last decade, but also one of Ireland's most famous pubs, favoured for its warm, convivial atmosphere. Whelan's existing layout includes four separate areas over three levels with roaring open fires throughout. Consisting of our front bar, a main ground floor venue with an overlooking balcony with a capacity of 450, the Upstairs venue and the Parlour Whelan's has a 960 person capacity.

The Parlour is a unique space with a laid back, comfortable vibe with a touch of flair and imagination. Immerse yourself in nostalgia with the uniquely retro interior with a private bar this is not only a premium area available on those great Whelan's gig nights, to relax, unwind and entertain guests, it is also available for exclusive hire for private parties.

Whelan's reputation is universal having played host to such legends as Jeff Buckley, Nick Cave, Christy Moore, and Peter Buck and Mike Mills from REM. In recent years Whelan's has hosted concerts for important new stars such as Damien Rice, Arctic Monkeys and the Magic Numbers as well as Oscar winner Glen Hansard and Brit Award winner Ed Sheeran. It is a venue that musicians from all over the world consistently request to perform in and return to.

25 WEXFORD STREET, DUBLIN 2

f whelanslive t @whelanslive

www.whelanslive.com

SCAN FOR GIG LISTINGS

