DESTINATION DUBLIN

Easy to get to and around, Dublin has both the state of the art facilities and the expertise to cater for any conference, meeting or event. The city's mixture of the traditional and the modern will excite and inspire, while the famed Irish hospitality will give your event that extra dimension.

ACCESSIBILITY

Dublin Airport is one of Europe's busiest airports, with 40 airlines flying to 180 destinations. We are the only EU capital with all day US Pre-Clearance Customs. Dublin Airport is located 12km from Dublin city centre.

PEOPLE

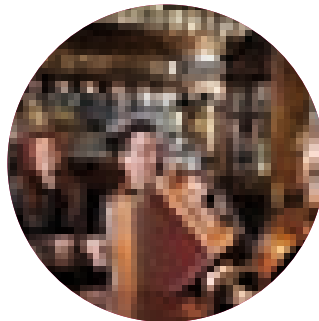

We have an English-speaking population who are among the most friendly in the world, according to Condé Nast Traveller.

EUROPEAN STATUS

We are fully fledged members of the EU and our currency is Euro.

EASE OF DOING BUSINESS

Over 1,200 overseas companies have chosen Ireland as their European base in sectors such as ICT, Pharmaceuticals, healthcare, financial and international services.

A BREATH OF FRESH AIR

Dublin is a city by the sea. We're lucky to be surrounded by a stunning coastline which offers great incentive products including water sport activities.

ACCOMMODATION

Dublin has 20,000 bedrooms. We have a great range of 3, 4 and 5* properties.

UNIQUE VENUES

We have a wide range of fabulous venues including breweries, distilleries, churches and everything in between!

CORPORATE FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Meet In Ireland's MICE Supports Programme offers financial assistance intended to enhance your overall programme.

DUBLIN'S HIGHLIGHTS

Dublin, Ireland's capital, is a city that truly captures your imagination. Cobbled alleys, Viking remains, Georgian squares. Dublin's history goes back over a thousand years.

Step back in time in this city full of literary landmarks, from the James Joyce Centre to Trinity College, alma mater of many of Ireland's greatest writers. Steeped in history, Dublin is a medieval city where an abundance of free museums and art galleries chronicle its long and colourful past, while the pubs and cafés buzz with traditional and contemporary entertainment.

Just 20 minutes outside the city centre you will find charming coastal towns and fishing villages that dot the coastline and provide lots of options for craft shopping, water sports, seafood dining and breath taking walks against the spectacular backdrop of Dublin Bay. Dublin is home to the friendliest people in the world. Add to this live music, packed pubs, hip clubs and plenty of culture plus a passion for sport and you have everything you need for a truly enjoyable visit!

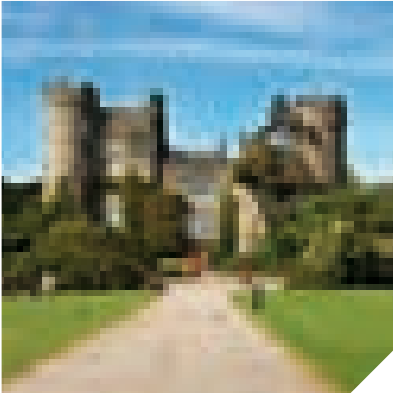

ENJOY THE FREEDOM OF THE CITY

Their contents are priceless, but entry to some of Dublin's top museums and galleries is free. That means you could skip from bog bodies at the National Museum of Archaeology to canvases by Caravaggio and Jack B Yeats at the National Gallery. You could check out four centuries of furnishings at the National Museum of Decorative Arts and Century, before visiting Francis Bacon's reconstructed studio at Dublin City Gallery the Hugh Lane.

DISCOVER DUBLIN'S STORIES

Start your journey with Dublin Discovery Trails, a series of self-guided walking trails, extending from Kilmainham Gaol through to Trinity College and up to Parnell Square. From Dublin's glorious Viking origins to the havoc caused by the 1916 Rising, let magical tales of the city's colourful past weave their spell as you wander from trail to trail with the Dublin Discovery Trails App, which is free to download! Or have a booze-soaked history lesson and do a Literary Pub Crawl which takes you from the Duke pub through the cobbled square of Trinity College and into several pubs in a maze of narrow streets.

DUBLIN'S HIGHLIGHTS

ON YOUR BIKE!

Get yourself some wheels and see Dublin in style! Hop on a Dublin Bike and whizz your way around the city's hotspots. If you prefer a guided tour there are plenty of bike tour providers in Dublin; See Dublin by Bike, Dublin City Bike Tours and if you feel a little lazy there's always Lazy Bike Tours who can provide you with electric bikes, so you'll be sure not to work up a sweat! If city centre cycling is not adventurous enough for you, why not try some mountain biking? With muck in your face, fire in your belly and nothing on your mind but making the bend... welcome to Ticknock Mountain Bike Trail courtesy of the guys in Biking.ie a short and sweet 8km loop stitched into the Dublin Mountains, this rollercoaster ride of hairpin berms, wicked boulders and technical rocky bits is just a 30 minute trip from the city centre. Once you get to the top, the views of Dublin City are sensational.

PLAY KING OF THE CASTLE

If castles and cathedrals are your thing Dublin has you covered! Take Malahide Castle, home to an amazing banqueting hall, a mischievous ghost named Puck and one of the best playgrounds in the country. In the city centre we have Dublin Castle, dating from 1204 AD and still central to the affairs of the nation. A tour of the State Apartments and Medieval Undercroft is essential here, but don't miss the Chester Beatty Library and its excellent Silk Road café, with Middle Eastern, North African, Mediterranean and vegetarian dishes.

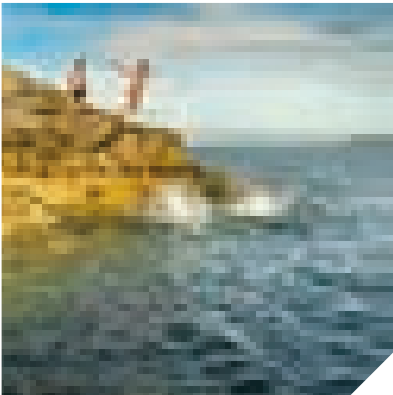

FESTIVAL FEVER

There is nowhere quite like Dublin for rocking that festival feeling. Rain or shine, Dubliners are always game for a celebration. From St. Patrick's Day Festival where the whole city turns green to celebrate our national holiday to Bram Stoker where the town is painted red with a fang-tastic programme of events celebrating Bram Stoker and his creation, Dracula! Fancy welcoming the New Year in the Irish Capital? The City is transformed into an outdoor playground of arts, culture and live entertainment over three days.

GO TO GAOL

Dating from 1796, Kilmainham Gaol was famous as “a machine for grinding rogues honest”. Or perhaps infamous is a better word...the building stands empty today, but its thick walls, grim graffiti and foreboding atmosphere still evoke a shiver. Watch out for the striking Victorian wing, where scenes from Michael Collins and the Name of the Father were filmed; an AV presentation and guided tour further tease out the jail’s place in Irish political and penal history.

BROWSE THE CITY OF WORDS

Dublin is one of just five UNESCO Cities of Literature. The words of Nobel laureates like Yeats, Shaw, Beckett and Heaney echo in its streets. Statues of writers stand in parks; their names have been given to bridges. Visitors can celebrate Joyce’s Bloomsday and see the Book of Kells at Trinity College.

POP INTO A PUB

These trusty little tabernacles are famous for their creamy pints, cosy snugs and quick-witted craic. Think of Mulligan’s, Kehoe’s, Toner’s or McDaid’s, all dripping with character all dotted about the city like time machines. “In Dublin, you’re never more than 20 paces from a pint,” author JP Dunleavy once said. But yesterday’s pints of plain are today deliciously diverse. Gastropubs do great grub; hotel bars are shaking up the cocktail scene; quality music, wine and coffee are mixing it up with flip-out fun in Temple Bar. Whatever your taste, there’s a Dublin pub for you.

CONQUER THE COAST

With so much to do in the City Centre, it’s easy to forget that Dublin is a city by the sea and Dublin Bay is an adventurer’s paradise! Get pumped up before a night on town – or head there the morning after to help in your recovery! Roll with the waves in a kayak in Dalkey with Kayaking, ie and if you are feeling brave, why not take a dip in the famous Forty Foot in nearby Sandycove. Try out kitesurfing in Clontarf with Pure Magic who will allow you experience the heart-stopping thrills of being pulled along the water by nothing more than a kite! Take a hike around the Hill of Howth and soak up amazing views of Bull Island and Dublin’s coastline before descending back down to the village where you’ll find some of the freshest seafood in Dublin in any one of the lively restaurants that line Howth quayside.

GETTING AROUND DUBLIN

LUAS

The Luas is Dublin's tram system, which connects the suburbs to the city centre. The light rail system runs regularly, operating every 4/5 minutes at peak times and every 10/15 minutes during off peak times. Services operate from 05:30 to 00:30 during weekdays.

Tickets can be purchased at automatic kiosks at each stop, with single tickets or weekly and monthly options available to purchase. Leap Card can also be used. For detailed information on Luas services see www.luas.ie

DART

Dublin Area Rapid Transport brings commuters to and from the city centre and along the coastal towns of Dublin. This service has 31 stations across the county of Dublin. Services generally run every 15 minutes, operating from 06:30 to 23:00. Leap Card or cash can be used. For detailed information on DART services see www.irishrail.ie/about-us/dart-commuter

DUBLIN BIKES

Dublin Bikes stations are distributed throughout the city centre to enable easy access and optimal use. Located in close proximity to each other, every station has a minimum of 15 stands in situ making it easy to enjoy the service. There is a terminal at every station. All terminals accept an Annual Card and a 3 Day Ticket. A number of terminals have credit card facilities enabling you to purchase a 3 Day Ticket. For detailed information on Dublin Bikes see www.dublinbikes.ie

LEAP CARD

A Leap Card is a reloadable smartcard that can be used to pay for individual journeys using Travel Credit and more regular commuters can load Rambler, Monthly or Annual tickets onto their Leap Card.

Leap Cards can be used when travelling on all Dublin Bus services, including Airlink, Xpresso and Nitelink, as well as Luas, Dart & Commuter Rail services.

A fully refundable deposit of €5.00 (Child €3.00) is charged for cards which can be topped up.

For detailed information on Leap Card see www.leapcard.ie

DUBLIN BUS

Dublin Bus is the biggest public transport provider in the Greater Dublin Area operating over 136 routes. Normal services run from 5.00am until midnight. The Nitelink service operates from midnight until 4.00am on Friday and Saturday nights. Leap Card or cash can be used. For detailed information on Dublin Bus services see www.dublinbus.ie

HAILO TAXI

Hailo is an easily downloadable app that makes booking a taxi easy. The Hailo App allows you to book, track, travel, pay in advance and receive e-receipts electronically. Hailo taxis are available throughout Dublin. For detailed information on Hailo see www.hailoapp.com

WALKING

Dublin is a very walkable city, making it easy to get around. You are only ever a few minutes from anything in Dublin city – down the road, across the bridge, around the corner, past the statue – so get on your feet and explore the streets where you are sure to find some hidden gems!

EXTEND YOUR STAY IN IRELAND'S ANCIENT EAST

Ireland's Ancient East covers the area outside of Dublin and east of the River Shannon, extending from Carlingford to Cavan and south to Cork City, including East County Cork and East County Limerick.

This wide area is home to many of the stories of Ireland's sacred past, a real treat for cultural enthusiasts! Ireland's rich history includes many castles, historical sites and other features which are not to be found anywhere else in the world.

With many of the key attractions from Ireland's Ancient East located right on Dublin's doorstep, there are plenty of options to fit in a quick adventure before or after your business meeting or conference.

Main attractions:

GLENDALOUGH

Explore the remains of this early Christian site, buried in the Wicklow Mountains. Discover round towers, valleys and stunning landscapes at this world famous historical monastic settlement. Glendalough is a remarkable place that will calm your mind, inspire your heart and fill your soul.

NEWGRANGE

Newgrange in Co. Meath is the best known Irish passage tomb and dates to 3,200BC. It is the oldest known deliberately solar-oriented structure in the world.

TRIM CASTLE

Trim Castle in Co. Meath is Ireland's Largest Anglo-Norman Castle. It is also the place where the film Braveheart was shot.

HOOK LIGHTHOUSE

Ireland's earliest known lighthouse is at Hook Head, Co. Wexford. It was first built in the thirteenth century, where it was maintained by local monks.

LOCKES DISTILLERY

Lockes Distillery in Kilbeggan, Co. Westmeath was licensed in 1757 and produced whiskey for over 200 years. Now open as a museum, it is the only sample left in Ireland of a typical small pot distillery.

CLONMACNOISE

This ancient monastic site near Shannonbridge, County Offaly, and a top visitor attraction in Ireland. A walk amongst the peaceful stone ruins of this famous place will conjure images of the saints and scholars of Ireland's renowned Golden Age of learning.

BIRR CASTLE

This fabulous castle and adjoining gardens in Co Offaly offer a historic and beautiful view of the Irish midlands. Comprising award-winning landscapes and set in Birr, one of Ireland's beautiful Georgian heritage towns, the gardens are abundant in exotic trees and flowers.

BORRIS HOUSE

This building is steeped in Irish history, home to former Kings of Leinster since 1500. The house was rebuilt in 1731 and offers guided tours to visitors. Situated between Mount Leinster, Blackstairs Mountains and River Barrow, this luxurious venue is considered the jewel in the crown of Carlow

ARDMORE

From a majestic headland to an idyllic bay, the coastline of Ardmore surrounds a village that is full of culture, creativity, music, adventure, unforgettable experiences and great escapes.

Activities:

- ▶ Cookery demonstration at Ballymaloe Cookery School
- ▶ Experience life as a Lord or Lady at Wells' House with a private tour and afternoon tea
- ▶ Tour and dine at the fabulous Russborough House, another one of the many stunning houses in Ireland

For sample itineraries and guides of upcoming events, see: www.irelandsancienteast.ie

EXTEND YOUR STAY ON THE WILD ATLANTIC WAY

Have you ever dreamt of embarking on a journey of discovery, to hidden places and secret worlds where all kinds of enchantment lie in wait? Well now you can, along the wildest, most captivating, longest defined coastal tourism route in the world at 2,500kms Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way. Tucked away in little villages and towns that snuggle into the coastline are delightful little nuggets of treasure in the form of food, activities, cultural, attractions and so much more! Here are just a few to whet your appetite.

Main attractions:

FANAD LIGHTHOUSE

Standing between idyllic Lough Swilly and Mulroy Bay beach Fanad Head Lighthouse has been voted one of the most beautiful lighthouses in the world. Give yourself plenty of time here - take in the spectacular scenery, explore the wild and wonderful natural world and learn more about the lighthouse in the visitor centre.

STRANDHILL

Take a bike tour from the seaside village of Strandhill around beautiful Knocknarea Mountain and through the striking lowlands and coastal roads with stunning views of Sligo Bay, the Dartry Mountain Range and Coney Island.

Stop off to see the megalithic tombs at Carrowmore, picnic in the giant sand dunes south of Strandhill and, if you're lucky, catch a glimpse of the local seal population. Finish up at Strandhill Village with a relaxing soak in the famous Voya Seaweed bath.

PEARSE'S COTTAGE

Visit historic Pearse's Cottage (Teach an Phiarsaigh) a small restored cottage overlooking the breathtaking lakes and mountains of Connemara, County Galway. The cottage was used by Patrick Pearse (1879-1916), leader of the 1916 Rising, as a summer residence and summer school for his pupils from St Enda's in Dublin.

CLIFDEN

This beautiful coastal town is located in Galway's picturesque Connemara area. Nestled between mountains, the Atlantic Ocean and bog land area, Clifden is one of Ireland's most popular towns and has many shops, bars, cafes, restaurants, hotels and B&B's which makes it a great stop off point on the Wild Atlantic Way.

CLIFFS OF MOHER

No visit to Ireland is truly complete without a visit to one of Ireland's most popular and picturesque tourist destinations, the Cliffs of Moher. The cliffs are Ireland's most visited natural attraction and offer the most spectacular views you will see anywhere in Ireland.

SKELLIG MICHAEL

A designated UNESCO World Heritage Site, Skellig Michael Island is renowned among archaeologists as the site of a well preserved monastic outpost of the early Christian period. This monastic site is reached by climbing more than 600 steps on a 1,000-year-old stairway. Stone beehive huts where the monks lived and prayed cling to cliff edges alongside oratories, a cemetery, stone crosses, holy wells and the Church of St Michael. These remains demonstrate the spartan conditions in which the monks lived until they left the island in the 13th century.

DURSEY ISLAND

A trip to Dursey Island off the west coast of Cork is a must for the adventurous, accessible from Ireland's only cable car. Take a 10 minute ride out to the island and enjoy the waves and water crashing below you as you go.

MIZEN HEAD

Mizen Head is based in the most southern part of Ireland. If you're looking for adventure, climb down the steps at the edge of the peninsula and journey along the arched suspension bridge to hit the point at which you can go no further. Look out at the sea and enjoy the wonderful view and noise that is created by the waves crashing off the cliffs.

DERRYGIMLAGH

Take the signposted looped walk (5km/3 miles) at Derrygimlagh in the heart of Connemara through a landscape of outstanding beauty and learn the story of this remarkable place told across 7 stop points at locations of former landmarks such as Marconi's Condenser House where Marconi achieved the first successful commercial wireless transmission of Morse code across the Atlantic in 1907.

Activities:

- ▶ Take it slow with meandering coastal walks, scenic cycle routes, a spot of kayaking and world heritage sites.
- ▶ Try a faster pace with sheer cliff face climbing, a surf lesson, hike up a mountain or take a dive.
- ▶ Relax with some star gazing at the Dark Sky Reserve in Kerry or marvel at the Northern Lights in Donegal.

For sample itineraries and details of upcoming events see www.wildatlanticway.com

Founded in 1988, Abbey Conference & Events are award winning Professional Conference & Event Organisers. We are part of the Abbey Group, who are Ireland's largest inbound tour operator. Our quality and experience is best demonstrated in our portfolio of International and National Conferences & Events. We have worked with organisations from a wide range of disciplines over the years including scientific, medical, financial, academic, industry and pharmaceutical as well as a number of Government Departments.

Essentially we become part of your team and use our experience and our network to help you transform your vision into a successful reality. Our strength lies in our ability to collaborate and partner with our clients throughout the lifetime of the event - your success is our success. We currently have 12 full time, experienced, multi-lingual employees within Abbey Conference & Events whilst the Abbey Group has over 130 employees with fluency in 13 languages.

This July, Abbey were awarded Best PCO at the prestigious Event Industry Awards, the second time we have won the award in recent years.

“ I've simply no idea how we would have managed without the wonderful team at Abbey Conference & Events – they became 'our team' from day 1. They helped us avoid many potential pitfalls, kept us on track and brought great value for money to the project. We would highly recommend Abbey – don't think of doing a conference without their team!

Take advantage of our great people, personal service, excellent systems, product innovation, creative thinking and, by no means least, of our strict financial management. These are the essential ingredients for the success of your event, be it a small meeting or an International Congress.

We manage a wide variety of academic conferences throughout Ireland, providing the Organising Committee with the professional services they require, efficiently and unobtrusively – thus allowing them to take care of the conference content and maximise the benefits from hosting their peers in Ireland.

Advantage Group is a founding member of the Association of Irish Professional Conference Organisers and a member of the Irish Tour Operators Association.

We are officially recognised by the Business Tourism Unit of Failte Ireland as a Professional Conference Organiser (PCO).

“ On behalf of the IAYMH Executive I would like to give a huge thank you to Ronan and the team at Advantage who helped make IAYMH 2015 a huge success, with over 600 delegates from 26 countries in attendance. The team at Advantage were able to manage all facets of our event from abstract submissions, light entertainment, political appearances and a dance troupe! The team's professional approach throughout the event was highly valued and appreciated by all in attendance and was noted in feedback received by conference delegates.

As our name says we organise conferences!

Founded in 1999, we are a conference management company, based in Dublin. We are exclusively dedicated to the organisation of exhibitions, conferences and meetings and are accredited by the Association of Irish Professional Conference Organisers (AIPCO) and Dublin and Cork Convention Bureaux.

We have managed scientific, technical and medical events around the world working with a resource of trusted suppliers to provide cost effective solutions that exceed our clients' expectations. At the heart of what we do is the client and delegate experience and we work with clients to assist with the choice and management of the venue incl. catering and all local arrangements, registration, IT, communication, delegate requirements and on-site management, as well as support to suppliers, presenters and local organising committees.

“ I recommend the services of Conference Organisers without hesitation. They have sustainably and reliably provided impeccable event planning and on-site support to us for the last three years. Despite the fact that we are based in Brussels and they are based in Dublin.

Driven by our 'hands-on' senior management team with over 100 collective years' experience, the company boasts a highly skilled, multi-lingual team of 54, split over 7 specialist departments, enabling us to offer our clients; in-house graphic design, website development, sponsorship and exhibition management, financial management, delegate management, marketing and promotion, abstract management, operations as well as a dedicated bid support team. Our approach is in our name, we act as your PARTNER. Conference Partners are not only accredited nationally by AIPCO but are also accredited internationally by IAPCO, ensuring that we are at the cutting edge of International standards and practices. 'Enhance your reputation by depending on ours'

“ Thank you for the wonderful work that the team at Conference Partners has done for the ICSB 2014 World Entrepreneurship Conference. One of the key factors in choosing Conference Partners was the focus that your company places on the conference finances, as this was a key area of concern from the outset. The comprehensive income and expenditure budget that you drafted, gave us peace of mind in the knowledge that all potential costs were included and that no surprises would arise. I have been 100% satisfied with the service that I have received from Conference Partners, so much so that I have recommended them at least twice to date. The support that you and your entire team have given to myself and the local organising committee has been outstanding in terms of quality, service, creative thinking and programme ideas. I very much appreciate the fact that you have considered the whole delegate experience, from start to finish. Thank you again for all of your support and encouragement.

Happening Conferences and Events Ltd (Happening) is a leading international Professional Congress Organiser (PCO) specialising in Associations, Initiated Conferences, Production and Management of Conferences and Events. With over 21 years in the business we have a wide variety of skills and expertise to offer with a quality of service that is demonstrated throughout our catalogue of events.

The company's focus is in the creation, production and implementation of regional, national, European and international meetings. Working as an extension of your team, Happening will play an active role in directing your event to a successful delivery, utilising our broad skills base and years of experience in the industry. Our professional team will work closely with you to ensure we exceed your expectations and make your event a memorable one for all involved.

Managing Director and founder, Anne Doherty, believes that successful meetings require original thinking, understanding of the needs of the client, strong financial control, passion, creativity and inspiration in order to provide an outcome that meets the needs of all participants, supporters and organisers. We are large enough to deliver large scale conferences but importantly we are small enough to care. Each conference is given a dedicated contact who will attend all meetings to ensure that we make things Happen!

“ Thank you for delivering such a fantastic conference. Delegate feedback has been universally positive. I've enjoyed working with you and have appreciated the positivity and fun approach. Until the next one...”

Keynote PCO is a specialised conference organiser for the association conference sector. We are aware that the needs of every conference committee are different, so whether you are looking for someone to manage a small part of your event or need help to run your entire project, Keynote PCO offers several possible service packages for client organisations to assist with your conference.

“As an academic, this was my first foray into a large conference with such an international composition. With the best will in the world it would have been impossible to provide the range and continuity of services without the help of Keynote. So much of the success of a conference turns on small things that are easily overlooked: managing the social events, responding quickly to queries, handing inevitable ‘crises’, and so on. The experience of Keynote meant that they could see potential pitfalls before they arose. I was more than satisfied in my working relationship with Keynote and will happily provide a reference in writing or conversation to any prospective conference organiser.

We are quintessentially Irish. Event Partners Ireland is a driving force of originality, unrivaled service and seamless delivery. Founded in 1998, our multilingual in-house team of experts are supported by the brightest and most brilliant guides in the country. Event Partners think differently. With our pioneering knowledge of captivating experiences, you will see Ireland through fresh eyes. Whether your requirement is for conference, event or destination management services, we have the contacts and purchasing power to deliver the best that the market has to offer. Our specialties include incentives, award ceremonies, exhibitions, sales conferences, board meetings, milestone celebrations and product launches. With flair and enthusiasm we source venues, we negotiate with hotels and suppliers. We deliver inspiring team-building activities, memorable welcome receptions, glamorous gala dinners and dazzling entertainment. With us, cutting edge meets old-school, methodical meets free spirited and hard work meets fun times! Never limited by our imagination, we challenge the norm on a daily basis. As a result, it is no surprise that we are a multi-award winning industry leader.

We would like to thank all of the staff at Event Partners Ireland for working with us during the recent Advertiser's Incentive. We have received so many accolades regarding the overall program, each person having their "favourite" moment. The whole process was so easy and straightforward, we only wish every DMC was this organised! You were a pleasure to work with throughout the operation stage, providing us with great service and follow-through, again, making our job so much easier. We thank you for your dedicated effort on our behalf, your spirit of cooperation and Irish hospitality. As is the case every time with every client, we stake our hard earned reputations as well as future business relationships on the outcome of the program. Thanks again for a great outcome that was delivered with an eye for detail and hard work. We look forward to partnering with you in the future

Welcoming the corporate world to Ireland for 50 years. Joe O'Reilly Ireland Group has grown since it was founded back in 1966. We currently have four offices, the first office was opened in Cork in 1966 and to this day is the administrative Head Quarters of the Company, then the Dublin Office in 1991, The French office opened its doors in 2005 followed by our Scandinavian office in Stockholm covering the Nordics in 2006. As a company our objective is very simple, we want to deliver to you and your guests the best possible service and price. The word no does not exist in our vocabulary as we believe where there is a will there is a way! We look forward to working with you.

Joe O'Reilly, a true visionary of Irish tourism set up this family business in 1966, making Joe O'Reilly Ireland Group the longest established and most successful independent destination management company in the country. Sadly Joe passed away in 2007 and the company is now headed up by Joe's son Bernard and a team with a combined experience of over 180 years with the same company!

“ I cannot begin to thank you for everything you did to make our events HUGE success! And thank you for the attention you gave the group, your onsite presence to ensure everything was going according to plan, and of course your flexibility and understanding with changes and requests. It was a truly memorable trip for our guests. It was truly a pleasure working with you!

We are a full service destination management company operating throughout the entire island of Ireland. Corporate meetings and incentives are what we do and for many satisfied international clients, clients who wish we were “their DMC partner in every country“. We enjoy a consistent average score of 99.27% in post-trip evaluations from clients. Sometimes we score 100%! Here at Odyssey, we have a real and tangible love for what we do, and a pride in how we do it – it’s not just another job for any of us, it’s a vocation. Our long-serving senior project management team think fast on their feet, understanding the roles of all parties involved in a program, respecting them, and allowing everyone to concentrate fully on their job. What do we guarantee? Genuinely, the best incentives in the world, here in Ireland, with its unique ‘people experience’. In Ireland it’s the people who really make the difference. Please get in touch to discuss your next project, our service is legendary and we have the track record to prove it.

“ We are sure you don’t need to be told how essential you and your staff were to the great success of the Auto-Owners program in Ireland. As you know, we have hosted programs all over the world, but it would be hard to find a program that had so many absolute treats. Located in County Kildare, Castletown House and Gardens is Ireland's largest and earliest Palladian-style estate. It was built between 1722 and 1729 for William Connolly, speaker of the Irish House of Commons and the wealthiest commoner in Ireland. Visit Castletown House to explore the beautiful 18th-century parklands, with river walks, a temple and the remains of a bathing house. Castletown Gardens in the 18th century was not designed with formal flower gardens; instead formally laid out landscapes in the French Baroque style were popular at the time. The historic landscape of Castletown has survived to the present day—modern visitors can wander along the river walks of Lady Louisa Conolly (resident in the house and responsible for decorating it in the 1760s and 1770s) and see the remains of her bathing house. In the 19th century, restoration efforts were focused on the immediate surroundings of the house; a formal garden was built behind the house and yew trees planted in front. The break up of the estate in the 1960s meant that the immense walled gardens, formerly situated to the north-west of the house were developed. These kitchen gardens were by the early 20th century the most profitable aspect of the estate, and a great source of local employment, though today only the farmyard beyond the west wing remains.

Christ Church Cathedral is the oldest working structure in Dublin. It is located in the heart of the city and offers three different spaces for business tourism – the 12th century crypts take up to 120 pax for a dinner or 200 pax for a fork buffet or reception. The magnificent cathedral nave is a spectacular setting for a prestigious gala dinner, drinks reception and choral recital. The music room, complete with grand piano, projection and natural daylight is an ideal location for a city centre meeting or VIP dinner. The Christ Church Cathedral choir, comprised of 22 professional singers, is available to perform at events in the cathedral, making a gala evening in a prestigious venue all the more special.

A unique city centre venue. Nestled beside the National Library of Ireland on Dublin's Kildare Street, No.6 has been the home of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland since 1864. Today, it is available to hire as a unique city-centre venue for weddings, corporate functions, social gatherings and gala dinners. Thanks to its illustrious medical past, No.6 houses an eclectic collection of artifacts and antiques reflecting the antiquity of the College. The main rooms of the building remain much as they were in 1864 when the building was opened.

The Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland (RCSI) is located on St. Stephen's Green, Dublin, in the heart of the city centre. The building dates back to 1810 and is steeped in history, charm and elegance. The RCSI is a perfect venue for any wedding, social or corporate event combining old world charm with modern day services.

In the main building, the College Hall and Boardroom can cater for up to 180 guests for a reception and dinner. Featuring open fires and high ornate ceilings, the rooms have an air of luxury and warmth. Combined with views overlooking St. Stephen's Green this is the perfect venue for any occasion. Also housed in the main building is the Albert Theatre an ideal venue for meetings, presentations or product launches. Combining the old with the new, the RCSI can host a reception and dinner for up to 400 people with the reception taking place in the historic College Hall and Boardroom and dinner in the Exam Hall. Alternatively, the Exam Hall is the perfect venue for meetings and seminars providing all of the necessary features required for large scale productions.

The compelling history of the buildings.

Tasteful integration of old and new buildings with formal rear garden

Richmond Barracks, now one of Ireland's Permanent Reminder 1916-2016 Projects. A unique historical venue in Dublin 8, offering exhibitions and historical tours. Richmond Barracks is a perfect venue to host a range of public and private events. The historic Gymnasium at Richmond Barracks can accommodate up to 200 people and is ideal for conferences, receptions and exhibitions. Visitors can relax in a beautiful and extensive garden to the rear of the buildings. The buildings have significant connections to the 1916 Rising and the events that took place in its aftermath.

- The Royal Irish Regiment which was based at Richmond Barracks was engaged in fighting the Irish Volunteers led by Eamon Ceannt at the South Dublin Union during Easter Week.
- Following the rebels' surrender, over 3,000 suspected rebels including 77 women were taken and held at Richmond Barracks before being sent to prison camps in England and Wales.
- The leaders and more prominent persons were held in the gymnasium.
- The leaders were identified and their courts-martial took place in Richmond Barracks before they were sent to Kilmainham Gaol for execution.

Prestigious institution

Saint Patrick's Cathedral has been at the heart of Dublin and Ireland's history and culture for over 800 years. Founded at the site of a sacred well where Saint Patrick is said to have converted pagans to Christianity, Saint Patrick's is the largest cathedral in Ireland. It has been visited by some of Irish history's most influential individuals from Cromwell, William of Orange and King James I, to Queen Victoria and her husband Prince Albert. It is the final resting place for one of Ireland's most famous men, Jonathan Swift, author of Gulliver's travels and Dean of the Cathedral.

The Cathedral's unique environment and architecture make it an ideal venue for seated dinners, cocktail receptions, award ceremonies, and more. For small events, the recently renovated Lady Chapel provides an intimate setting, complete with updated lighting and sound. The striking architecture of the nave with its soaring columns and vaulted ceiling makes it a distinctive space for gala events. We offer private performances from the Cathedral choir, an institution with a rich history including the first performance of Handel's Messiah. We also offer after-hours and behind-the-scenes tours.

The name Taylor's Three Rock is derived from two sources; The Taylor Family Homestead and Three Rock Mountain. Since 1690's, the Taylor's were eminent farmers and in the 18th Century, Thomas Taylor became Lord Mayor of Dublin. The Taylor's continue to live and farm in the locality and many roads and place names bear their family name. The family are also credited with initiating the landscaping of the stunning 220 acre Marley Park, located across the road. Three Rock Mountain, one of the most prominent peaks on the South County Dublin skyline, rises directly behind the pub and provides a gateway to the infamous Dublin and Wicklow mountains.

7 Major Days

Located just 10kms from the city centre, racing has taken place at Leopardstown Racecourse as far back as 1888. Featuring 23 race meetings annually, Leopardstown is proud host of the Stan James Irish Gold Cup, Longines Irish Champions Weekend and the world renowned Christmas Festival which takes place from Dec 26th – 29th. The success of the “Bulmers Live at Leopardstown” summer racing and music series as seen acts such as The Human League, The Boomtown Rats, The Charlatans and The Happy Mondays perform to crowds up to 10,000 people. Leopardstown Racecourse is easily accessible by road or public transport – Leopardstown offers complimentary shuttle buses on racedays from/to the nearby Sandyford Luas stop (Dublin’s light rail network). Other notable events include the annual Student Day in April, Family Day in May and Friday Evening Racing in June.

Leopardstown Racecourse is currently undergoing a major redevelopment with the final stage due to take place in 2017. The newly refurbished and rebranded 1888 Restaurant opened for the Christmas Festival in 2015 in addition to Champions Bar (formerly Fillies Restaurant) opening for Champions Weekend in 2015.

Want to offer the perfect mix of night-time entertainment, Irish culture and good food to your customers? Then add Greyhound Racing to your itinerary in Ireland.

If you've never been before then we're guessing it's not what you imagine. Modern stadium facilities make this a comfortable and enjoyable night out, with a choice of restaurant and private suite dining options, group casual food packages in the bar areas or admission only options.

The evening starts from approx. 6.30pm when the doors open, with racing normally beginning between 7.30 and 8pm. Greyhound Racing is fast paced and exciting, races run every 15 minutes and a typical race takes just 30 seconds! With just 6 Greyhounds in a race, choosing a winner is easier than you'd imagine and if you fancy a flutter (just €1 will do!) then the Tote betting staff are always nearby.

For a VIP touch, adding a race name to the booking gets your name in lights, with the chance to present the winner on the podium.
